Hotel Hospitality and Tourism Management

COURSE DESCRIPTION

It is popular to eat out. This brings us to a profession for the gourmet and footloose, for the person who enjoys meeting and bringing joy to others. The benefits are commensurate with the person's level of passion for his chosen field.

The history of the hospitality sector is thought to have started in France in the fifteenth century. Founded in 705 AD, the hotel Nishiyama Onsen Keiunkan in Yamanashi, Japan, claims to be the oldest in the world.

The Taj Mahal Palace in Mumbai was the first luxury hotel in India. It was opened on December 16, 1903, by Jamsetji Nusserwanji Tata, the founder of the Tata Group. The hospitality industry is expanding at an incredible rate. People travel for both business and pleasure. They want to learn about different cultures and connect with people they know. They travel for adventure or relaxation. They travel to celebrate or grieve. Whatever their reason, it's business time for those in the hospitality industry.
